We're Moving Again - Seriously
Honoring Our Founders

From the President

Terry Looft

IF THIS WERE AT THE LAST MEETING, THEN I WOULD BE YELLING ABOUT NOW! Those of you who were at the last meeting would know nothing more about the goings on than the ones who were not there. So, once again, our club is on the move, and this time by our choice rather than the Pub. Our meeting room would have worked out just fine except for the fact that there was no door on the room. With the bar activities, the noise level was such that you could not speak to the person next to you let alone conduct a meeting. I don't expect much in the minutes except a bunch of "WHAT DID HE SAY?" quotes.

So, again our merry band of MGers is on the move. A number of members took the time to check out other places that would have us and provide a private room for our meetings. The next stop in our travels will be the Rusty Bucket, or is that the "Rusty Bouquet" (for the Keeping up Appearances fans)?

Upcoming MGCC Events

25 – Meeting at Rusty Bucket (if we don't get kicked out after the Feb meeting)

See meeting minutes for other area activities!!

The location for the Rusty Bucket is the Dayton Mall location, 2812 Miamisburg Centerville Rd, Dayton. Let's hope this location will work for us.

Only a little to report from the workshop front, but some work is being done. At last my powder coating set up is ready to be tested. I hope to have a few samples of powder coated items for show and tell at the meeting. The engine will be coming out of the V8 next week for a detail and paint under the bonnet make over. I'm also hoping to redo the brakes top to bottom and top it off with Dot 5 fluid. The problem is most of the V8 parts must come from England. The front brakes are a little different than the stock 4 cylinder MGB. The Red automatic 69B will be getting a head overhaul and the SUs will be getting the John Twist touch at our carburetor overhaul class later this month in Grand Rapids. First of the week we will do an MGA check for progress, I hope something to report at the meeting.

Spring is just around the corner, so any projects that you had planned on for this winter should be getting finished now. Our tune-up clinic will be here before you know it, so if you have run into any problems, maybe we can help sort them out.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting (Don't forget...Rusty Bucket at the Dayton Mall!!)

We're Moving Again

In case you speed-read through Terry's column and missed it, we're moving again. While the Fox & Hound looked good, our search team missed the fact that the private room lacked doors to shut off noise from the other areas. Some very noisy event was going on there, making it next to impossible to conduct our meeting. We sent out another search team, giving them more specific instructions, and they came up with the Rusty Bucket, located at 2812 Miamisburg-Centerville Road, 45459, at the Dayton Mall. It's on the South-East corner of 725 and 741, in a section of stores separate from the main mall complex. It is visible from 725, and is next to Bravo. (Sorry, my computer skills aren't good enough to capture the aerial photo from the internet.)

The MG Car Club, Southwestern Ohio Centre was founded in 1966, and held it's first meeting at the Davis Buick dealership in Dayton, Ohio. Davis Buick also was an MG dealer, and offered meeting space there. The club has been active ever since, and among the 100 current members, four were at that first meeting, held 49 years ago. In December, the club wanted to honor it's "Founders" and presented an engraved award to each: Dick Smith, Steve Powell and John & Linda Wolfe. All are still active and continue to own and drive MG's. Congratulations!

Becoming "Founders" Sometime in 1966: Our Story

Steve Powell

I'm not sure how I found out about the first meeting, but I do remember meeting in the sales area of the Davis Buick dealership on South Main Street in Dayton. It seems like there were five or six of us there? –Too many years ago to be sure!

We purchased our first MG, a 1951 TD, in Roswell, New Mexico in 1962. I paid $600 for the car that was not in very good shape. However, it had no rust or wood rot since it had always been in the southwest. It came back home with us to Dayton in 1963.

Since then there have been twelve more MGs. The oldest these was a 1929 M Type, that we owned four or five years. We sold it without ever having had it running. The newest one was the primrose yellow 1969 MGC GT that I restored in 1994. This car is currently owned by fellow club member Tim Dunham. In between the M Type and the MGC GT, there were sundry TDs and TCs.

The one I would like to have back?—1929 M Type.

The one most fun to drive?—1955 MG TF 1500.

The easiest to drive?—1958 MGA.

The prettiest in my eyes?—1948 MG TC

Favorite car restored for others?—1939 MG WA Sedan, restored after five years of work for a friend in Spring Valley, OH.

Jane and I still are having fun with our MGs!

Welcome New Club Member Jerry Flexman

Carole Looft

We welcomed new club member Jerry Flexman at our January meeting. Jerry is a Psychologist who lives in Xenia and owns a 1974 red MGB. He has owned the car for several years and enjoys driving it on curvy roads.

He acquired the car after hearing the original owner telling someone else that his MGB was for sale. The original owner was a business man who was liquidating his assets and the car was one of the things that needed to go. Jerry inquired about the car, and according to him, he 'stole' the car that very day! It sounds like the car is in pretty good condition and that it was indeed a 'steal'. Good work, Jerry! We welcome you to our club, and hope we are able to share in your MG experiences.

Editor's note – I know the following has nothing to do with British cars, but Shakespeare was British. Keep this in your car for use when someone parks too close to your MG, or bring it to the next meeting to use as needed.

Oscar Mayer Wienermobile -- Iconic Hot Dog Car -- Celebrates 75th Birthday

Editor's Note – This was from 2011. A bit late. Sorry.

The iconic Oscar Mayer Wienermobile vehicle is seen outside of the New York Stock Exchange as part of its day-long 75th birthday celebration, Monday, July 18, 2011. To commemorate the milestone, the Oscar Mayer brand rang the closing bell at NYSE. | AP

The Ford Mustang. The Chevy Camaro. The Oscar Mayer Wienermobile?

The famous hot dog-shaped hot rod might be better fit for cookouts than burnouts, but that doesn't mean it's not a classic American car.

Now celebrating its 75th birthday, earlier iterations of the sausage on wheels have been cruising the country since 1936, when the meat-makers at Oscar Mayer created their first Wienermobile as an attention-getting way to shuttle the company's spokesman between shops.

In the years since, the Wienermobile has evolved from a 13-foot long cylinder without a windshield to a modern-day fleet of six sausage-shaped vehicles, which travel the country promoting the brand, according to Time.

After a brief break from the road in the 1970s, when Oscar Mayer targeted consumers mainly with television ads instead of enormous rolling hot dogs, the Wienermobile returned to the streets in the 1980s and early 1990s, CNN reports.

To ring in its 75th birthday on July 18, one Oscar Mayer Wienermobile visited New York City, offering hot dog lovers free rides across Manhattan. The movable hot dog parked in front of the New York Stock Exchange while Oscar Mayer representatives rang the closing bell to cap off the day's trading.

Earlier this year, the Wienermobile made headlines by bringing a Dallas high school student and his pals to prom -- in style. In 2009, one of the sausage-shaped vehicles crashed into a home in Wisconsin.

50 Weird Traffic Laws

Next time you complain about a speeding ticket, remember that there are much sillier things that could get you in trouble.

1. It's illegal to wear a blindfold while driving in Alabama. It's dangerous in all states.
2. It's illegal to drive in Alaska with a dog tethered to your roof.
3. It's illegal in Eureka, California to use the road as a bed.
4. In Glendale, California, it's illegal to jump from a car going over 65 mph. It's also stupid.
5. In England, it's illegal to drive on the right side of the road. Of course they think the U.S. law against driving on the left side of the road is weird.
6. In Connecticut, it's illegal to hunt from a car, even if it's painted bright orange.
7. There's no driving through playgrounds in Georgia, but it is kind of fun.
8. Thirty days in jail await any hooligan who screeches his tires in Derby, Kansas.
9. It's illegal for women to wear a housecoat while driving in California.
10. Tourist states like Nevada, Hawaii, Alaska and California enforce laws against driving too slow.
11. A fine awaits those who allow vehicular molestation by their pets in Kentucky.
12. Don't blare your horn at a restaurant after 9:30 P.M. in Little Rock, Arkansas or you'll get a side of ticket with that burger.
13. Don't park in front of Dunkin Donuts while in Maine. It won't be worth the trip.
14. Don't let road rage get the best of you in Rockville, Md. Swearing from a vehicle is a misdemeanor.
15. Running into a pedestrian in Sarasota, Florida is only a $78 fine.
16. It is illegal to spit from a car or bus in Marietta, Georgia. It is, however, OK to spit from a truck.
17. There is no disrobing in your car in Sag Harbor, New York.
18. In Dunn, North Carolina, it's illegal to play in traffic...
19. or drive on the sidewalk...
20. or drive through a cemetery.
21. Do not leave your car door open longer than necessary in Oregon.
22. Don't use your car to prove physical endurance on an Oregon road.
23. Hilton Head, South Carolina forbids the storing of trash in your vehicle.
24. It's legal to eat road kill in West Virginia. Yummy!
25. Police officers must honk their horn or flash their lights and wait at least three minutes before breaking up any romantic goings-on in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.
26. You can't change your clothes in your car in Evanston, Illinois with curtains drawn.
27. The ice cream man has been banned in Indianola, Iowa.
28. The dead poultry delivery man has been banned on Kansas Avenue in Topeka, Kansas.
29. You'll get fined if your truck leaves a mess in Minnetonka, Minnesota.
30. You can't honk the horn of someone else's car in University City, Missouri.
31. There's no tree planting in the middle of the street in Blairstown, New Jersey.
32. There's no running out of gas in Youngstown, Ohio.
33. It's illegal to shoot whales from your car in Connecticut.
34. There is no rutabaga street planting in Chico, California.
35. Spilling your margarita on the street is illegal in Hermosa, California.
36. Fancy bike-riders should avoid Galesburg, Illinois.
37. Absolutely under no conditions should you throw your Red Ryder into a street in Iowa.
38. Benches are not allowed on the street in Reno, Nevada.
39. Roller-skaters and cars cannot share the road in Canton, Ohio.
40. Assembly members in Georgia cannot be ticketed while the Georgia State Assembly is in session.

41. It's OK to drive on the sidewalk in Oregon...as long as you yield to pedestrians.
42. You must give an audible signal while passing a car in Rhode Island.
43. It's illegal to ride a camel in Nevada.
44. Don't ride an ugly horse in Washington.
45. You can't cross the street while walking on your hands in Hartford, Connecticut.
46. Some birds actually have the right away on Utah streets.
47. It's illegal to start a car in Denmark if there's someone under it.
48. You can't drive a car in England unless you're in the front seat.
49. Skateboarders in Florida need a license.
50. Moose are forbidden to have sex on city streets in Alaska

MG Car Club Minutes, January Meeting

Sam Hodges

Our first meeting at 'Fox & Hounds' and boy am I glad I lost that election...

Our President, standing on a chair, has risen... Terry, "Just testing the acoustics..." Dave Gribler, "There's a pool table behind you there..."

President Looft continued, "It's a long story but basically we were thrown out. Basically we weren't spending enough money per hour to let us keep the room at BW3. There was also a fight over the menu. Thanks to Ron and some others, we have this place, no strings attached. We don't know how it'll work out, but we'll give it a try."

Holiday Party, thank you Ron. Thanks for the full menu. Ron, "There are pics running on my laptop."

Terry, "French Lick, how many heard about the credit card breach of security. Monitor your statements closely." Skip, "There was a story about a CC breach and it indicated that the French Lick resort would provide a years worth of CC monitoring." Kathy Goodman, "I got it, they will pay for it. I haven't been hit yet but it's worth getting just to be safe." Bonnie Hankey, "The morning I was leaving for Panama, American Express called me reporting there had been apparent fraud on my card." Kathy G., "Apparently it wasn't the hotel, but the shops and restaurants where the breach occurred."

What is the largest permanent sporting facility with 267,000+ permanent seats? Oops. That was a trivia question from the weekly trivia contest going on in the big room... that we can't close off... and we're kind of stuck with it unless they take a break... or we do.

Terry continued, " We got thank you's from the Food Bank and Salvation Army for our donations in 2014 and new blank envelopes for us to send them more money..."

Car updates. "The MGA is doing fine. I'm neck and neck with Skip." Skip, "No, I'm ahead, mine's already been painted." Terry, "The MG V8 is having a new radiator crafted for it. Carole has convinced me to redo the engine bay, so I'm going to take apart a perfectly running car and redo the engine bay."

Vice President's Report. V.P. Sam Hodges (Still weird writing about myself in the third-person. Although I think Sam could get used to it...) "So, after leaving my Lincoln Navigator out on one the coldest nights of the year, I drove to work the next morning and when I went to put the window down to open the parking garage gate, the express-down feature on the driver's window decided it was going to do its job admirably, despite the glass still being frozen in the frame. So, after swinging past the dealer on the way home only to be told that it'd be $200+ for them to fix it, or I could do it myself for about $10 in materials, I spent that evening taking apart the door only to discover that Lincoln, luckily for me, only silicons the window glass into the lift mechanism. Only took about an hour and it so far appears to be doing just fine. Just FYI.

Who said, 'Baseball is 90% mental. The other half is physical'? Trivia question. My bad...

Minutes were next. Steve Powell motioned to accept the Minutes as reported. Ron, Parks seconded. Minutes approved.

Treasurer's Report. Treasurer Dave McCann Sr. was absent tonight. Filling in was Dave McCann Jr. (who did a remarkably capable job - hint: next elections are only 8 months away) gave the report. The MGCC had total expenses of Salvation Army Donation ($500.00) + Food Bank Donation ($500.00) + Skip Peterson reimbursement ($214.50) + Ron Parks Christmas Party reimbursement ($460.31) + Newsletter postage ($34.30) equals a total loss to the MGCC of $1,709.11. The MGCC had gains from Membership ($204.00) and Regalia ($102.00) + Interest gains ($0.04) for a total gain to the MGCC of ($306.04). Total loss to the MGCC was $1,403.07 When subtracted from our beginning balance of $6,065.19, the MGCC was left with an ending balance of $4,662.12 in the primary checking account. Gumball cash-on-hand was $80.00 after payment of the January Gumball Rallye. The Savings account currently has $379.32. It was pretty loud in the back room, and I honestly have no idea who did what, so, Dave Gribler motioned to accept the Treasurer's Report. Linda Wolfe seconded (I have no idea if she did, but she was there...). Treasurer's Report approved.

Membership. Carole Looft, "Let's see how loud I can holler..." Terry, "Just pretend like we're at home." Dave Estell, "Good thing you're leaving tomorrow." Carole, "He might be going alone." Carole continued, "Membership total is 87. There are two new members, John Smith and Jerry _____ (Hey, it was loud. Its a minor miracle I got John Smith...)"

Activities with Eddie. Fast Eddie Hill, "Hello out there! This is January... Theres actually nothing in January. My notes say there's a Pub Run, The Second Street Market show has been set for May 23rd, Cars & Coffee is going to be starting up again. There's something called the 'Think- Spring' classic driving tour. There are pics going back two years so it might be something we want to take a look at. Windsor/Detroit Car club is having a Hibernation party in February. Ft. Meigs is June 7th. NAMGBR Niagara Falls. MGA meet is in Frankenmuth, Michigan this year."

Skip, "BCD will also be the Tiger/Sunbeam Meeting this year. They're going to go in conjunction with BCD." Pub Run will be at BJ's Brewhouse at Austin Landing (actually it was changed to Archers in Centerville after consulting with BJ's and discovering that they couldn't accommodate us) Sunday, February 15th at 5:00.

Who is the all-time leading hit record holder in Major League Baseball? Oops. another trivia question from the big room...

Sunshine Committee. Terry Looft, "Sue Scocozzo had knee surgery recently." Louie lost a sister-in-law.

Newsletter. Steve's not here. Terry, "He would like to do cars-n-critters. Send him pics of your car and you pet. I suggested a flopping fish on the hood of a car."

Webmaster. John's not here but we're having website issues. He's kicking around the idea of changing our domain/server/etc. or maybe getting our own website.

Beer Brake called at 8:05.
Back from Break 8:20

Terry, Old Business. The customary Louie old-joke...

Skip Peterson, "We ordered 250 die-cut vinyl window stickers I should have them this week. Name tags are still floating out there." Terry, "We have three left." Skip, "I need to talk to Rallye Productions over doing some for us. Apparently they have a new way of doing it that can bring the cost down." Terry, "The new C-n-C machine is working perfectly. We might be able to do three lines on the badges now." Dave Jr., "Can anyone in this club even read the fine print?"

Grille badges. Terry, "We'll table that for now..."

What two cities hosted the first two modern Olympic Games, held in 1896 and 1900?

The Octagon News – February 2015

Oops, another trivia question, never mind...

New Business. Spring Drive. Any ideas? Spring's coming. Eddie, I just mentioned the Spring Drive... Eddie, pick a date. Terry, any ideas.

Tech Tips. Linda Wolfe. "Wear long underwear up to the Twist's party or you'll freeze you ass off."

For Sale. Dave Gribler. "I have the following items I'd like to liquidate. New side curtain set for MGA. Black trunk carpet for MGA. 68-59 door panels for MGB." Terry, "Steve, did you sell your rear end?" Steve Powell, "I sold my rear end, it was expensive." Terry, "I heard it was worn out." Skip, "It had a bad worm gear." Steve, "Hey, I've got a plaque. Leave me alone." Kathy G., You know you can have them rebuilt." Steve, "You speaking from experience?"

Gumball Rallye. Other than a quarterback, who scored the very first touchdown in a Super Bowl? Damn trivia question!!! I missed who won the Gumball Rallye!

Carole Looft, "We ended up with one extra present at the Holiday Party, a pink snuggie, that we're going to give away as a Gumball Present." After drawing, Steve Veris wins the Snuggie.

Ron Parks wins the surprise gift - the stocking.
